of the Tumkur Town Mkt the election of the president before the date of the occurrence of the Vacancy in that office, was held, under the corresponding provisions in the rules for the election of presidents, to be valid as the rule in question has been considered to prescribe merely the outer limit for holding the elections and that it does not lay down that an election held during the term of a president whose term of office is known to expire on a definite date, is illegal in view of this precedent and ruling, and on the same analogy, the election of Mr N A Singlachar as Vice-President may perhaps be approved
